FROM FATHER'S DESK

Father Nathaniel Meyers

The month of May has been an important one for a wide variety of cultures and religions. In Ancient Greece, for example, the month was dedicated to Artemis, the goddess of fecundity, while the Romans of antiquity dedicated the month to Flora, the goddess of blossoms. In more recent history, the Soviet Union and other communist countries kicked off the month of May with May Day being titled International Workers' Day. For our part as Catholics, beginning in the middle ages, we have consecrated the entire month of May to the Virgin Mary. While there are a wide variety of practices in how Catholics honor the Blessed Mother during this month, the instinct is rooted in a similar practice that we'll find in those other religions and cultures—namely, a celebration of new life.

May is a time when the fruits of spring truly begin to unfold as the trees bring forth their leaves, flowers begin to bloom, and all kinds of other vegetation shake off the shackles of winter and stretch out with renewed vigor. However, the Catholic devotion of consecrating May to Mary goes one step further, because it recognizes the spiritual dimension at work alongside the natural cycle of Spring. Not only are we being blessed with warmer weather, more sunshine, and the greens of the fields, but we also are blessed with the graces of Christ. The final leg of the Easter Season is upon us and for two more weeks we continue to contemplate the Resurrection as we await the great feast of Pentecost wherein Mary and the Apostles received the Holy Spirit in the Upper Room. With Mary firmly rooted as our mother in the new creation of the Resurrection, the Church turns to her now and asks her to help each of us live the life of grace and peace.

I encourage everyone to make a special point of increasing their devotions to the Blessed Mother throughout this month of May. Whether it is in praying the rosary, completing a novena, reading a book about Marian piety, or a multitude of other options, we each can grow closer to Mary and through this devotion come to a deeper communion with her Son. Mary will always lead us to the life of grace and as we see the world around us rejuvenate this spring, let us also be rejuvenated in our souls through the powerful intercession of Mary.

In Christ,
Fr. Meyers

UPCOMING KING'S HOUSE RETREAT

Thursday, May 16th — Men's/Women's Day Retreat
Preparing for Pentecost

"Pentecost" is Greek for "fiftieth" and is 50 days after the Resurrection. In the Acts of the Apostles 1:4-5, Jesus explains that he is going to send the Holy Spirit. The Greek word for "Holy Spirit" translates to Paraclete, meaning advocate, teacher, helper, comforter. All of these describe the third Person of the Trinity. These meanings show us why it's important to meditate on the profound impact of Pentecost. Lunch included. Includes Lunch, conferences, Mass; Confession available. Suggested Donation $60.

Register at www.kingshouse.com or call 763-682-1394. If you are hesitant to register for any retreat due to financial restrictions, please contact the King's House office to complete their registration.
