FROM FATHER'S DESK

Father Nathaniel Meyers

"Real men wear pink" is a mantra that has been used for a while now as part of the breast cancer awareness and support campaign. I can recall before this became a part of the larger effort to address breast cancer that there was a more ironic and defiant tone to that message, which was coined in response to the fact that so few men ever actually wear pink clothing. Indeed, the color pink is a decidedly non-masculine one, so it is no wonder that it is rare to find men wearing it and those who do making it a point to defend their choice. Nevertheless, twice a year, the Church has the option for priests to wear "rose" (i.e. pink) vestments and we come to one such weekend now.

I often laugh at the priests who choose to wear the pink vestments for Gaudete Sunday and then protest that they are not in fact pink, but rather "rose." As anybody familiar with the rose flower knows, a rose is not a color, but rather a beautiful flower that comes in many colors. One such color is pink, which the Church uses today to celebrate that we are at the midpoint of Advent. We have been focusing on the end times in our readings and prayers, but soon the shift will be focusing on the Nativity and all that took place to get ready for the Savior's birth. The reason for this shift is simple: if we want to know how to prepare for Christ's Second Coming, we should look at His First Coming.

The memory of God's work in bringing the Incarnation into existence is truly worthy of rejoicing. Therefore, I gladly and without shame admit that I am wearing pink vestments at Mass this weekend. Rejoicing in God's saving work should cause all of us to be willing to risk some level of embarrassment, such as a grown man dressing in pink, and not worry about defending ourselves. Today, let us all rejoice in the truly marvelous work of God.

In Christ,
Fr. Meyers

SHARING AND CARING HANDS

Tuesday, December 20th

Five times in 2022, STFX parishioners have prepared, delivered and served an afternoon meal to the homeless and needy at Sharing and Caring Hands. The next meal in 2022 will be December 20th. Please consider helping with this great work. Your help is needed to make bars or cookies, shop, butter bread, prepare the meal and deliver and serve the meal. Bars and cookies can be dropped off at church basement on Sunday morning, between 8:00am-12noon, or Tuesday morning, between 7:00-10:30am. Please clearly mark them for Sharing & Caring Hands.

To help in any way, contact Pat at 763-607-1185. If you cannot physically help, please remember to pray for the success of this and other organizations that minister to the poor and homeless.

Lord our God, the poor people of our world are often tossed aside and forgotten. Help us to remember that they, too, are gifts from You. Open our hearts to be more generous to those who go without. Amen.

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER JESSE TREE

STFX has a Jesse Tree in our gathering area to point to Jesus through charity. Our church has again been asked to be the Emergency Church for those families who missed the Buffalo Rotary's Adopt-A-Family program registration.

There is great need this year as many families struggle financially and emotionally. Please take an ornament, read the prayer and purchase the item requested. Please return the actual Jesse Tree ornament with your gift card (or money for the CCW to purchase the gift card) to either the box by the Jesse Tree, in the collection basket, or drop off at the Parish Office by Monday, December 12th. This allows time to purchase and distribute the needed items.

Questions? Please call Lois Pahl (612-532-8516), Shannon Duerr (612-741-4892), or Joleen Olson (612-210-7018).

CATHOLIC Q & A: STRENGTHENING FAITH

Question: Our prayer group is discussing ways we can change and strengthen our faith. What one thing could we change that would have the greatest impact on our faith?

Answer: A famous coach once said that when the team is in trouble and things aren't going well, go back to the basics; when the team is winning and things are going well, go back to the basics! Any renewal program, faith development, or spiritual growth effort has to start with the basic core of what it means to believe. If the foundation is not strong, the house will not stand.

So if you work on one thing, begin with the idea that God is love, who loves us and calls us to love one another. If we really take that belief to heart, it changes how we see God, ourselves, and one another. It would change how we pray, how we treat others, and how we understand and live our own life. Our sense of mission and purpose will be more focused on God's plan and our role in it. Love is the core of faith, the goal of life, and the hope of heaven. Whatever we do to strengthen and deepen our faith will begin and end with love.
