

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

FROM FATHER'S DESK

Father Nathaniel Meyers

Memorial Day is always a blessed occasion as this civil holiday calls us to consider those who have fallen in the service of our country. Since 1971, the United States has held this holiday on the last Monday of May (prior to this it was always held on May 30th) and thus the significance of the holiday has been somewhat lost over the past 50 years as it truly has become just a long weekend for most people and a chance to engage in shopping or hosting a bar-b-que. Yet, for the faithful of the Archdiocese, we have been blessed to host the priestly ordinations over the Memorial Day weekend and thus connect this civil holiday with a deeply religious celebration.

While it is always beautiful to see new men being ordained to the priesthood, 2024 promises to be even more exceptional for us here at St. Francis Xavier because this very weekend one of our native son's will now be a priest of Jesus Christ according to the order of Melchizedek. Fr. Alex Rasset—who received his prior sacraments all through our parish, graduated from our parochial school, and was an exceptional leader for our Teens for Christ youth group—now will himself be presiding at the altar of the Lord and bringing the Eucharist into the world. As Fr. Alex receives the powers of priestly ministry, the key element of his life will be to offer a memorial to Christ.

"Hoc facite in meam commemorationem" is the Latin text that concludes the Words of Institution in the Eucharistic Prayer (we translate this into English as "Do this in memory of me"). One can probably easily see the connection between the Latin word commemorationem and our English word memorial. The Latin original is in the accusative singular case, meaning that its place in the prayer is to direct attention to a specific person—namely to Christ Himself. The priest in praying these words is announcing to those who have gathered at prayer, as well as to himself, that our lives must be lived in memory of Christ. When we gather with friends, when we go to the grocery store, when we watch Netflix, or whatever else we can think of in life—all of it should be done in accord with the mystery of the Eucharist and to make the life of the Lord present and known to those in our midst.

Fr. Alex and his brothers who are beginning their priestly life this weekend will have countless opportunities to live these words of the Eucharistic Prayer and they will have the blessings of God to help them in this noble endeavor. However, they will also need us to continue praying for them and supporting them in their priestly vocation. While kind words and gifts can do wonders for a priest, the actually greatest thing any of us can do to support Fr. Alex is to ourselves live the reality of those words: Hoc facite in meam commemorationem. Pursuing sainthood and growing in holiness is the best way we can help secure Fr. Alex in his new life as a priest. Whatever we do in life, let us each be sure to make each of our decisions a memorial of Christ's life and love.

In Christ,
Fr. Meyers

UNBORN BABY ADOPTION PROGRAM

Second Month Developing Baby

Your baby is making progress developing all of its external features and internal organs. The baby's brain is functioning at 40 days. The baby's mother can hear its heartbeat now on an ultrasonic stethoscope. Its milk-teeth buds are present at 6½ weeks. And it has been reported that a two-month old baby can suck its thumb. From this moment onward, your spiritually adopted baby grows and refines its body. But everything the baby needs to survive once it is born is already present by the end of the eighth week. Pray that the Lord of Life might move the heart of the baby's mother to give it the most precious gift of all -- the gift of life.

PRAYER: Jesus, Mary and Joseph I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn child that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

CATHOLIC Q & A: VOCATION

Question: What does it mean to discern a vocation?

Answer: The word vocation comes from the Latin word vocare, meaning "to call." A vocation is a calling or invitation from God to serve in a particular way. For Catholics, that calling might be as a priest, sister, or married person. Vocation is the way we respond to the invitation to share in God's grace and witness to God's love in the world.

Discerning a vocation is the process in which we pray for God's guidance. We listen for God's message that is often quiet and unassuming in a world filled with noise and distractions. We look at our gifts and talents, seek the advice of others, examine our motives, and listen to see what God is asking of us. The goal of discernment is to follow what the Lord wills, not what we think is the best idea. Many men enter a seminary to discern if that is their vocation, only to discover that their calling is to marriage. Others have resisted the idea for long periods of time, until finally they could resist no more. Some great saints have described that dilemma. Vocation is a human process of divine origin, and each of us must strive constantly to hear the call of God in our lives.
