Renewing our Mission

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." These words from the Gospel of Matthew form the beautiful mission statement of our parish and the foundation of all that we strive to do in our ministries and apostolates here at Saint Francis Xavier. As we reflect on this new chapter in the church in Buffalo, MN these words of our Lord Jesus should inform, motivate, and guide every action of our lives, after all the gift of Gospel Faith is the greatest treasure we have, and the greatest gift we can offer to others. This is why the Church exists, to make the Gospel known and loved.

This is also the call of the Archbishop. In his pastoral letter, "You Will Be My Witnesses", the Archbishop invites all the faithful of the Archdiocese to join together in a renewed spirit of hope and joy in proclaiming the Faith.

We all know that our world is full of suffering. This is nothing new. We all know that our world is full of violence and hatred. This is nothing new. We all know that we as Christians are often misunderstood. Again, this is nothing new. The call to evangelize, to make disciples, is not a new mission, but rather a revival of the mission of the Church, to speak into the suffering, violence, hatred, misunderstanding as our Christian brothers and sisters have done for nearly 2,000 years. People like, Saint Peter and Saint Paul, Saint Patrick and Saint Boniface, Saint Dominic and Saint Francis of Assisi, like our great missionary patron, Saint Francis Xavier!

These stories of the saints are not meant to be relics of a bygone age, but rather reminders and invitations for us to continue the great work in our own age and place.

Let us, together with the Holy Spirit, set Buffalo afire with the Love of the Lord!

God be praised!

In Christ,
Fr. Austin Barnes

Parish Mission: "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." — Matthew 28:19-20

Parish Vision: Out of love for God and neighbor, we achieve our mission by respecting all life from conception until natural death, professing the Catholic faith as received from the Apostles, sharing our gifts for the benefit of all people, focusing on the family as the center of discipleship, and celebrating the sacraments for the greater glory of God.
