FROM FATHER'S DESK

Father Nathaniel Meyers

We celebrate Deacon Alex Rasset's entrance in Holy Orders this weekend, which is indeed a cause for rejoicing. Dcn. Rasset joins Sofia Nikula, who entered the Carmelite convent last year, as another young person from our parish making a truly profound commitment to Jesus Christ and His Church. Praises should indeed be directed to God not only for choosing Dcn. Rasset and Sofia for these lofty vocations, but also for His granting them the grace to cooperate with their respective calls. My sincere prayer is that other young men and women in our parish will follow their example and choose Holy Orders or religious life as I cannot imagine there are not more among our ranks that God desires to become priests, monks, or nuns.

As we rightly celebrate Dcn. Rasset's diaconal ordination this weekend and look forward in joy to his presbyteral ordination next year, one of the key aspects of this celebration should be the explicit encouragement of such vocations in our children and grandchildren. I have sometimes heard parents who suspect a son has a vocation to the priesthood say that they are purposefully not encouraging him to pursue it, lest the young man feel obligated to become a priest. Truthfully, I think such an approach is a mistake. While we certainly want young men and women to embrace priestly or religious vocations freely, why wouldn't we encourage them to pursue something that can do so much good and seems to fit them well? Children are often encouraged to pursue athletics that they like or where they demonstrate a noticeable talent. One imagines many parents with an artistically inclined child would help that child pursue a career that would incorporate such gifts. Indeed, it would be peculiar not to do so, yet there seems to be a hesitancy among even the most devoted Catholics to actively encourage priesthood or religious life for their children.

To all of our parents and grandparents, I ask you to not be afraid to directly encourage religious and priestly vocations. The discernment process will be there to help them along the way and God's Providence will reveal to them if they should pursue married life instead. However, if we do not carve out in a deliberate manner the room for young men and women to actively consider priestly or religious service, then God's call can easily be lost in a flood of noise arising from social media, peer pressure, consumerism, and a whole host of other influences arising from the world. Today we celebrate a new deacon from our parish, but may he not be the last.

In Christ,
Fr. Meyers

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!

Let us remember our mothers and ask for God's blessing on them. It is God who ultimately gave us life. It is through God's unselfish love -- mirrored in our mothers' willingness to associate their love with God's and take the risk to love us into life -- that we have the opportunity for life. We remember our mothers this Mother's Day with much love.

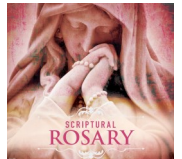

COME PRAY A SCRIPTURAL ROSARY

Tuesday, May 30th | 5:45pm | Church

Join members of the Council of Catholic Women in praying a Scriptural Rosary on Tuesday, May 30th, just prior to the 6:30pm Mass. Before each Hail Mary is prayed, a short scriptural meditation will be read.

The word Rosary means "Crown of Roses". Our Blessed Mother has revealed to several people that each time they say a Hail Mary, they are giving her a beautiful rose, and that each complete Rosary makes her a crown of roses. The Holy Rosary is considered a perfect prayer because within it lies the awesome story of our salvation. With the Rosary in fact we meditate the mysteries of joy, sorrow, light, and the glory of Jesus and Mary.

COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN MEETING

Tuesday, May 30th | 7:00pm | Parish Hall

The next Council of Catholic Women general meeting is being held on Tuesday, May 30th. Please join us for the Scriptural Rosary at 5:45pm and Mass at 6:30pm. The CCW understands there is a great need at the Buffalo Food Shelf. The Food Shelf can make our dollar go a long way, so please either make a check payable to "Buffalo Food Shelf" or make a cash donation when you come to the meeting. Questions? Please contact Marcia Endres at 763-682-2090, Judy Weldele at 763-682-1983, or Lois Pahl at 612-532-8516.

ACTION ALERTS - MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD!

There are multiple bills that will impact children and families here in Minnesota. Please go to MNCatholic.org/ActionAlerts, learn about the issues, and send messages urging your legislators to:

1. Pass a robust child tax credit that will support families doing the hard work of raising the next generation amid increasing economic pressures.
2. Vote NO on legalization of recreational marijuana. We know this will negatively impact families, especially those who bear the cross of addiction, and will put kids at greater risk of drug abuse.
3. Ensure that pro-abortion provisions are not included in the final health finance and policy omnibus bill. We must help women in need, not eliminate common-sense laws that help ensure their health and safety.
4. Put a stop to legislation that expands transgender transitioning for minors and makes Minnesota an epicenter of this corrupt practice.
