FROM FATHER'S DESK

Father Nathaniel Meyers

In just a short few days, we will be starting the Season of Lent. For many Catholics, Lent maintains a strong importance even as other aspects of the faith may recede from memory or practice. I am struck by how many people still do not eat meat on Fridays because it is Lent, but nonetheless do not attend Mass on Sundays. I suspect situations such as this are a result of our innate knowledge that we need to do something to turn away from the world and redirect ourselves towards God. The Lenten practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving all have as their goal the development of a deeper, more meaningful relationship with God. By denying ourselves, making more time to pray, and giving of our own treasure, each of us resolves to act more like Christ.

Of course, to be more like Christ, we also must be more a part of His Church. The Church is the Mystical Body of Christ, as St. Paul makes abundantly clear in his letters, and therefore our relationship to Christ must be lived in the Church. As Catholics, we naturally experience the Church most immediately in our parish, but it's worth remembering that no one parish is the entire Catholic Church. The danger of congregationalism—wherein a single congregation becomes seen as the only expression of Catholicism or a congregation isolates itself from the rest of the Body of Christ—is a real threat to our unity as Catholics. Therefore, we must actively work to not only speak of being a part of the universal Church, but actively act on this aspect of our faith.

The implementation of the Archdiocesan Synod should hopefully help to break parishes out of some of their congregationalist mindset, but sharing resources and strategic visions will be of no avail if we do not worship and pray in a unified manner. As a way of helping to be a part of the universal Church in our prayer, we will be singing the Mass parts in a simple Latin chant this Lenten Season. Our musicians will practice the chant settings—which should sound familiar to many in the parish—with the congregation before Masses.

By praying these parts of the Mass in Latin during Lent, we not only unite ourselves to the Church by praying in Her official language, but we also unite ourselves to the millions of Catholics who have come before us and even to those who have come after us. Indeed, this is but one way we make good on the provision from Vatican Council II that says, in Sacrosanctum concilium, “steps should be taken so that the faithful may also be able to say or to sing together in Latin those parts of the Ordinary of the Mass which pertain to them.” As we begin praying these parts of the Mass together with the Latin chants, I encourage each of us to meditate on how doing so draws us into deeper communion with the Mystical Body of Christ.

In Christ,
Fr. Meyers

CATHOLIC Q & A: IS GOSSIP A SIN?

Question: Is gossip a mortal sin?

Answer: To really ask this question, we must consider the Eighth Commandment: "You shall not bear false witness."

In its reflections on this commandment, The Catechism of the Catholic Church invites us to not only think about what bearing "false witness" means, but to also consider how we understand the truth and how we communicate more broadly. This is why so much of this section of the Catechism has to do with the gift of language. With this in mind, we will notice that the word "gossip" isn't used by the Catechism. Instead, we find the words "detraction" and "calumny," which are actually two forms that gossip can take, and both can be quite serious.

First, detraction is the of revealing "another's faults and failings to persons who did not know them," without morally valid reasons. Calumny, by extension, is saying something about another person that is untrue, and it is sinful because it "harms the reputation of others and gives occasion for false judgements" (see no. 2477).

In all of our communication, we have to always recognize that we have a moral obligation to the truth and to always work to protect the reputation and honor of our neighbors (see no. 2479).

Gossip can, in fact, prove to be a very serious sin. After all, the Catechism reminds us: "No one is bound to reveal the truth to someone who does not have the right to know it" (no. 2489). When we have gossiped, especially if we are aware we have damaged another person's good name or reputation, we want to make every effort to undo the damage we have done, including seeking the grace and forgiveness offered in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
