FROM FATHER'S DESK

Father Nathaniel Meyers

I was speaking with a priest friend of mine recently about the liturgical controversies and debates surrounding the 1962 Missal and the 1969 Missal. For those unfamiliar with the differences between the two Missals, the 1962 Missal is used in what is sometimes called the "Extraordinary Form" or the "Traditional Latin Mass" (abbreviated online as "TLM") while the 1969 Missal is used in what sometimes we call the "Ordinary Form" or "novus ordo" or even "the Mass of St. Paul VI." Sadly, these two Missals have been co-opted by partisans in our cultural and political debates to serve those ends, which completely misses the point about the true meaning of the Catholic Mass.

As my friend and I were speaking, we both voiced frustrations with a sizeable portion of those who have a devotion to the 1962 Missal. While there is nothing wrong with the Mass that is celebrated with the 1962 Missal, I have noticed that several who attend these Masses see it as a mark of purity and necessarily a vessel for better worship. Of course, the Church does not see things this way and those who lived prior to Vatican Council II can attest to the fact that many Masses celebrated prior to the Council were rife with problems (whether it be people praying rosaries instead of participating in the Eucharistic mystery, poor pronunciation of Latin by the priests, clumsy altar boys, weak singing from the choir, or any number of other human foibles that will always be with us). Yes, when celebrated well and with good intention, the 1962 Missal makes for a beautiful, transcendent liturgy that gives glory to God—but so too does the 1969 Missal when celebrated with due reverence and according to the Church's rubrics.

The problem in this debate is that far too many Catholics are focused on the form of the Mass more than on the reality that the form makes present. The key aspect of the Mass is that the Eucharist becomes present, which often gets lost in the debates surrounding the Missals (or even, for that matter, when parishioners focus on hymn choices or homily styles). While I would not want to go so far as to say that the form of the Mass doesn't matter, the key question to ask ourselves always is whether the Mass provides a valid Eucharist that allows the faithful to be fed with the Body and Blood of the Lord.

If we truly believe in the Blessed Sacrament and are convinced that the 1969 Missal consecrates the host validly, then perhaps those of a more traditional bent should be less consumed with the 1962 Missal and should instead look to enrich the celebration of the 1969 Missal with transcendence and beauty that honors the rich history of the Church's liturgical worship. We do the Mass no favors by locking it into our political and cultural worldview, because it should always rise above those and indeed help shape and form those (rather than the other way around). On this great Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, let us each allow the Mass of St. Paul VI to draw us more deeply into a Eucharistic faith.

In Christ,
Fr. Meyers

FAREWELL RECEPTION FOR FATHER MEYERS

Sunday, June 9th | 11:30am-1:00pm | Parish Hall

After 10 years in Buffalo, it is with sadness to announce that Father Nate Meyers will be leaving St. Francis Xavier on June 16th. After a brief vacation, he will be assigned to Transfiguration in Oakdale, MN. In celebration and thanksgiving for Father Meyers' years of faith-filled leadership, there will be a reception held in his honor. Please join us to say good-bye & wish him well!

SHARING & CARING HANDS

Next STFX Meal Date: Tuesday, June 18th

Four more times in 2024, St. Francis Xavier parishioners will prepare, deliver and serve an afternoon meal to the homeless and needy at Sharing and Caring Hands. Those dates are: June 18th, August 20th, October 15th and December 17th. All dates are on Tuesdays.

Please consider helping with this great work. If interested, please contact Pat at 763-607-1185. If you cannot physically help, please remember to pray for the success of this and other organizations that minister to the poor and homeless.

Sharing and Caring Hands in Minneapolis, founded by Mary Jo Copeland over 37 years ago, is known for living out the corporal works of mercy every day. The organization serves meals for the hungry six days a week – with over 240,000 meals served last year and over 500,000 pounds of food donated each year. Sharing and Caring Hands provides over 3,300 beds for adults and children with nowhere else to sleep, and clothes thousands. This ministry allows us to be as the hands and the arms of Christ to those in need. All of the meals served and the resources provided are donated and served by volunteers. Sharing and Caring Hands offers surrounding parishes and churches of all denominations countless opportunities to come and serve.

Lord our God, the poor people of our world are often tossed aside and forgotten. Help us to remember that they, too, are gifts from You. Open our hearts to be more generous to those who go without. Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION FOR JUNE 2ND, 2024

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

The best way to understand the Eucharist is to recall God's long, careful teaching process beginning in the Old Testament. This week in Exodus 24, we learn the basic pattern. Moses reads the dictates of God's law to the people, who profess their allegiance to it. Then Moses takes representatives of Israel's twelve tribes and splashes the sacrificed blood of animals in two directions: on the altar and on the people. It's clear and serious business: clear, because the participants are entering a blood-bond with God Himself; serious, because the dead animals symbolize the life-and-death stakes at play.

Many centuries later, God uses the experience at Sinai to teach us something new. At the Last Supper, like a new Moses, Jesus proposes to "pour out" blood as a new covenant. It will land on the altar of the cross and the lips of His disciples. They have promised to be obedient to Him who is God's law in flesh. This renews and elevates the breath-taking romance God wants with His people, unfolding from Sinai to this Supper. The Body and Blood of Christ is the sacrificial action whereby this covenant is strengthened.

How hopeful that, like us, the Israelites and the apostles repeatedly fail to live up to their promises and discover that the blood of the covenant continually renews and refreshes them. Today the blood of Christ faithfully flows, to unite and renew, moving us forward toward where our great teacher is taking us. This week, we should say a renewed "amen" to God who so carefully teaches us how to be one with Him in this new covenant. — Father John Muir ©LPi

CATHOLIC Q & A

Question: What are the "fruits" of Holy Communion?

Answer: The Eucharist, like all sacraments, offers its own unique grace. We receive a share in God's life that helps us in our faith journey. We are given all we need to sustain and nurture our relationship with God. The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. Everything we are and everything we hope to become is found in this sacrament. It is essential to the life of the church, to each member of the church. Without it, there is no church. The Eucharist is the center of our spiritual life and has enormous effects on our growth and our holiness.

The fruits of holy Communion are the benefits one receives from the sacrament. These fruits of holy Communion are discussed in the catechism in the article on the Eucharist. The primary benefit is union with Christ. We become one with him sacramentally, just as we hope to become one with him for eternity. The Eucharist also separates us from sin, both past and future. It forgives the venial sins of the past and, by the love we receive, protects us from mortal sin in the future. The church community is also unified and strengthened by the Eucharist. It unites us to the poor and offers the pledge of eternal life.
