FROM FATHER'S DESK

Father Nathaniel Meyers

We had new carpeting put into the parish and school offices earlier this year, finishing off this project by getting the conference room by the parish reception area carpeted shortly before Thanksgiving. As is the case when carpeting, this required us to move furniture around and I am grateful to all who helped with moving the bookcases and all of their contents for this project (with special gratitude being directed to Travis Nelson, who led this effort). I noticed as the furniture was being moved that the bookcases were made in 1992, which naturally got me thinking to how much has changed over the last 30 years.

When those bookcases and our parish library were first established, personal computers were a mere shadow of what they have become and the idea of a search engine would have been something found in science-fiction novels. In this context, a parish library would have likely been one of the few places people could ever find books or videos on the faith. Now, of course, we have whole websites available for this (including Formed.org, for which our parish has a subscription that is open to everyone to use) and Amazon or other companies can deliver these resources to our doors in a mere 48 hours. One wonders how long libraries will survive in today's world (whether in a parish or anywhere else). Recognizing the changing nature of how people access information about the faith, as well as observing just how infrequently people make use of our parish library, we will be moving the bookcases out of the parish offices and relocating them to Parish Hall over the Christmas break.

In this process, we also are refining our current collection of books as some of them are damaged or outdated due to various changes in the last few decades. Once the bookcases and the library are relocated to Parish Hall, people will be free to come and take books for their reading as they wish. We will not be having a check-out list or keeping tabs on the location of any given book, but instead operating this on an honor system. However, this is not an invitation for people to bring their own books and leave them on the shelves—any books will be thrown away indiscriminately regardless of their content to forewarn people using this as a means of clearing out their own homes. I hope that those who are looking for some reading material on the faith will find this change of location helpful for them.

In Christ,
Fr. Meyers

Parish Vision: Out of love for God and neighbor, we achieve our mission by respecting all life from conception until natural death, professing the Catholic faith as received from the Apostles, sharing our gifts for the benefit of all people, focusing on the family as the center of discipleship, and celebrating the sacraments for the greater glory of God.

CATHOLIC Q & A: WHY DO WE CALL JESUS, "THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD"?

Answer: In cultures around the world, light and darkness are chief symbols of good and evil, order and chaos, clarity and confusion, hope and despair. These symbols tap into something essential about the nature of things. God has given us the created world as a gift. His first work, as we see in Genesis 1, is to create light, giving meaning and insight to the abyss. It is in the light that rest of creation comes to be. A gathering darkness emerges in Genesis 3. Adam and Eve hide, shrouding themselves from the sun's rays and the gaze of God. While God offers a promise of salvation and establishes a covenant with His people, the sense of fog and dim understanding still remain. The Hebrew people repeatedly betray the promises they have made to God, and all around them the nations actively worship idols.

The promise of God is not in vain, however. In John 1, we see a depiction of Christ as primordial goodness, order, clarity, and hope. "The true light, which enlightens everyone was coming into the world ... this life was the light of the human race" (John 1: 9, 4). Think of the last sunrise you witnessed (if you could wake up for it!). As you watched the lavender brighten to rose edged with gold, did your heart swell? Did you recall the goodness of the world? Did you feel rekindled hope? Such is the role of Christ in the soul. Such is His coming Incarnate in our world.

UPCOMING SAINT FEAST DAY

Saint John of Kanty | December 23rd

Saint John of Kanty (St. John Cantius) was born in the Polish town of Kanty in 1390. He was a bright young man who did well in his studies at the university in Krakow. He earned his doctorate in philosophy and went on to be ordained and earn a doctorate in theology as well.

He began teaching at the university following his studies. Unfortunately, his popularity caused his dismissal on false charges. Saint John was reassigned as a parish priest in the town of Olkusz, Bohemia. His parishioners didn't receive him with open arms, but John didn't give up. His honest care for the people of his parish eventually endeared him to them.

After a time, he was invited back to the university, teaching until the end of his life. Saint John deeply cared for the poor, keeping only what he needed to survive. Saint John of Kanty died on December 24th, 1473. He was canonized in 1767, by Pope Clement XIII. In 1998, a new religious community in Chicago, Illinois (Canons Regular of Saint John Cantius) chose the saint for their patron.
