FR. BARNES INTRODUCTORY BULLETIN COLUMN FROM APRIL 21ST, 2024
WHEN APPOINTMENT ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE BY ARCHBISHOP HEBDA

It is with great honor that I accept Archbishop Hebda's appointment of me as the new Parochial Administrator for the Church of St. Francis Xavier in Buffalo effective July 1st of this year. My name is Fr. Austin Barnes and I hail from South St. Paul and the parish of Holy Trinity. I am the oldest of three children, and my family continues to call the Twin Cities home. I attended South Saint Paul High School and then went to St. John Vianney College Seminary at the University of St. Thomas where I graduated in 2016. I then attended The Saint Paul Seminary and was ordained to the priesthood on May 30th, 2020. My first assignment has been the parishes of St. Michael and St. Mary in Stillwater along with St. Croix Catholic School.

I am grateful for and humbled by the Archbishop's appointment for me to join you in Buffalo. As a lover of history it is exciting to become a part of a parish with a long history, and such an inspiring patron as St. Francis Xavier. I look forward to meeting all of you and walking the Way of the Risen Lord together. Please pray for me. There is an old saying that always greatly impacts me:

*If the parish priest is a Saint, his people will be holy;
If the priest is holy, but not yet a Saint, his people will be good;
If he is good, his people will be lukewarm;
and if he is lukewarm, his parishioners will be bad.
And if the priest himself is bad, his people will go to Hell.
[That is presuming they follow after such a priest.]*

My desire is for all of us to be holy, to be Saint. Let us support one another through prayer and sacrifice that we may respond to the Lord's grace with generous hearts.

Sincerely in the Risen Christ,
Fr. Austin Barnes

CATHOLIC Q & A

Question: In Year B, we hear primarily from the Gospel of Mark. Since each Evangelist has a unique perspective, what are the key issues that Mark addresses in his Gospel?

Answer: Gospels are a particular faith community's reflection on Jesus. Each Gospel's author reflected that community's faith in Jesus. Jesus' message is made relevant to the community's situation and context. Mark was the first Gospel to be written. When Matthew and Luke wrote theirs, they imitated and adapted Mark for their communities.

Mark's Gospel seems to be addressed to a faith community undergoing turmoil, rejection, and persecution—forces that threaten to overwhelm them. This provides the context around which Mark fashions the story of Jesus. He presents Jesus as the One sent by God to confront the forces of evil. That is the good news of Jesus.

Jesus' struggle with the demonic forces leads to confrontation, rejection, outright opposition, and a conspiracy to do away with him. Realizing this, Jesus is not deterred. Rather Jesus calls for total faith in God who helps us to overcome the forces of evil. Suffering and even death seem to be the consequences of this struggle. Yet, that is not the end. The one who suffers for the sake of others, the suffering servant, will be the one through whom redemption and salvation will come to all. For Mark, this is what discipleship demands and what true faith in God can and will accomplish. See if you can detect these themes as you read Mark's Gospel.

HEALING THE WHOLE PERSON STUDY

No Small Groups-Just You and the Lord
Tuesday Mornings | July 23rd - August 20th
9:00am-12:00pm | St. Michael Church, St. Michael

The Church of St. Michael offers many opportunities to encounter the Lord's love, but often, people hesitate to sign up because they don't want to share in a group setting. This Healing the Whole Person (HWP) study is not a small-group study. Participants watch a video talk by Dr. Bob Schuchts and Sister Miriam Heidland, SOLT, of the John Paul II Healing Center, then spend time in silent, prayerful reflection, following the HWP workbook.

In this Healing the Whole Person study, Dr. Bob Schuchts and Sister Miriam Hedland, SOLT provide teaching for understanding and experiencing the healing power of God in the wholeness of body, soul and spirit. Through this study, they help us discover how to walk into our brokenness (our sins and wounds) and how to turn those to God so He can heal them. Cost: $50 (for workbook and video study)
