FROM FATHER'S DESK

Father Austin Barnes

Monday, October 21 is the Feast of Blessed Karl (Charles) of Austria

Karl of the House of Austria was born on August 17, 1887, in Lower Austria. His parents were Archduke Otto and Princess Maria Josepha of Saxony, daughter of the last king of Saxony. Emperor Franz Joseph I was Karl's great uncle. From an early age, Karl fostered a great devotion to the Blessed Sacrament and the Sacred Heart of Jesus. He used prayer to guide him in making all important decisions. On October 21, 1911, he married Princess Zita of Bourbon-Parma. During the ten good years of their happy and exemplary marriage, the pair were given eight children. While on his death bed, Karl said to Zita: "I love you unceasingly!"

On June 28, 1914, because of the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand, Karl became the heir apparent of the throne of Austria-Hungary. In the middle of the First World War, the death of Emperor Franz Joseph on November 21, 1916, made Karl the Emperor of Austria. On December 20, 1916, he was crowned Apostolic King of Hungary. Karl also saw his duty as a way to follow Christ: by loving his people and being concerned and devoted to improving their lives. The most sacred obligation of a king—to provide peace—became the primary focus of Karl's efforts during this horrific war. The only world leader to do so, he supported the peace proposals of Pope Benedict XV.

During a most difficult time domestically, he offered extensive assistance to his people and gave example to them by passing social legislation in conformity with Catholic social teachings. His stance prevented civil war from occurring during the post-war transition of government. Yet still he was banished from his homeland. At the request of the pope, who feared that communism would overtake Central Europe, Karl attempted to restore his government and return to the throne of Hungary. Two attempts failed because he wanted to avoid civil war at all costs. Karl was then sent into exile on Madeira. He saw his abandonment there as a commission from God, a duty he could not put aside.

He lived with his family in poverty, in a damp house. There, Karl contracted a fatal illness, which he accepted as a sacrifice to make for the peace and unity of his people. Karl endured his suffering without complaint, forgave everyone who had treated him unjustly, and died on April 1, 1922, with an almost holy countenance. The motto of his life, which he even said on his deathbed, was: "My entire endeavor has always been to clearly recognize the Will of God in all things and to follow it as completely as possible."

On October 3, 2004, Pope Saint John Paul II beatified Emperor and King Karl.

A part of my pilgrimage to Portugal next year will be to the tomb of Blessed Karl. To learn more about the holy emperor you can visit: emperorcharles.org

In Christ,
Fr. Barnes

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

World Mission Sunday gives us a chance to participate in and support the Church's evangelizing mission. To give financially to support this cause, please find envelopes in the entrances of the church.

"BABY BOTTLE FOR LIFE" PROGRAM

Your Loose Change Can Change a Life

October is Respect Life month and the St. Francis Xavier Council of Catholic Women would like to ask for your help in raising money for Pro-Life organizations. Last year through your generous donations, we were able to donate $750.00 to each of these Pro-Life organizations: Minnesota Citizens Concerned for Life, ProLife Across America, Corner Stone Women's Center, and Human Life Alliance.

Baby bottles are available at each of the entrances of Church. Please take one and place on your kitchen table or other prominent location in your home. Then, over the next few weeks, fill the bottle with coins/cash/checks (made out to CCW) and return it to the collection basket located in the Gathering Space of the Church by October 31st. Questions? Please call Lois Pahl at 612-532-8516.

LETTER FROM THE CATHOLIC BISHOPS OF MINNESOTA ON THE 2024 ELECTION

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS

As we approach the 2024 election, we encourage you to reflect on the virtue of faithful citizenship. As Catholics, our spiritual life and public life are not separate. Rather, our prayer and sacramental life informs our conscience, guides our actions, and sustains us in our efforts to build a just society.

In our representative form of government, voting remains a significant responsibility. Those we elect to office make critical decisions on our behalf, and therefore, we should participate in the electoral process with informed consciences, nurtured by prayer.

As faithful citizens, the principles of Catholic Social Teaching are the foundation for discerning how to vote and advocate for policies that promote the common good. The Church's social teaching reflects the Gospel's call to love our neighbor, promote the common good, and uphold the dignity of every human person. These principles give Catholics the tools to live out our personal call to holiness despite the challenges of modern society and to share the truths of the faith. Understanding current issues through the mind of the Church informs our conscience to vote and act accordingly. Although national elections draw much attention, state and local politics directly impact the quality of life of our families and communities. Therefore, our engagement at the local level is vital.

As we discern our choices, let us remember that no candidate is likely to align fully with our positions. And although we may not find a presidential candidate, for example, who aligns with all our values, that is not an excuse to abstain from voting altogether. There is a full ballot of candidates, each with the potential to shape our communities and our future.

As we prepare to vote, let us consider the following when evaluating candidates:

At All Levels:

- Who will work to protect life from the moment of conception?
- Who will respect the liberty of the Church and the rights of all believers to practice their faith?
- Who will defend the rights of free speech and assembly, necessary for a properly functioning democracy?

At the Federal Level:

- Who will promote peace among nations and reject the escalation of violence as a means of conflict resolution?
- Who will exercise fiscal responsibility and avoid burdening families with inflation and debt?
- Who will work for a just and comprehensive immigration policy that respects the wellbeing of both American citizens and migrants?

At the State Level:

- Who will oppose the legalization of assisted suicide?
- Who will promote economic security for families, including access to housing?
- Who will uphold the rights of parents and support parental choice in education?
- Who will steward our state's natural resources responsibly?

At the Local Level:

- Who will advocate for public safety that protects citizens, respects victims, and offers restoration opportunities for offenders?
- Who will ensure harmful materials are kept out of public libraries?
