FROM FATHER'S DESK

Father Nathaniel Meyers

I noticed one of the apartments across the street from the church put up a Christmas tree and decorations in the window the day after Halloween. While it is hardly surprising in today's impatient world to see decorations go up so quickly, I nonetheless always find it disheartening to see people skipping through Advent to jump straight into Christmas. Here we are three weeks away from the start of Advent and already so many people have moved straight into Christmas—albeit in a mostly secular observance of the holiday. As Catholics, perhaps the time has come for us to deny ourselves this cultural impulse to skip ahead and instead focus on the time at hand.

November is the month of remembrance for Catholics. We began this month with two of the most uniquely and distinctively Catholic days of the year—All Saints Day and All Souls Day. With these two days, the Church sets the tone for the entire month of November as a time in which to pray specifically for the dead, remember and reflect upon their lives, and to devote our spiritual practices to the souls in Purgatory. There are countless ways in which one can care for the poor souls as they are purged from their attachment to sin: offering Mass intentions, praying a Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament, saying a novena or rosary, and offering a fast are but just a few that come to mind right away. Each of these are beautiful ways in which we can help the souls in Purgatory make their way to Heaven.

As there are still nearly three weeks left in November, let us take this time to focus on this time as a month of remembrance for the good of the faithful departed. Instead of rushing to the Christmas Season along with the rest of the world, we can use these weeks to pray with the Church and be present to the demands of the moment. Whenever we notice Christmas decorations for sale in the store or pass by a yard that is already showing Santa and the reindeer, we can choose in that moment to say a brief prayer for the faithful departed. By remembering the dead in the month of November, we will be present to this moment and making the most of it.

In Christ,
Fr. Meyers

Don't forget to check out FORMED, the FREE Catholic resource for STFX Parishioners, to find out many videos, books and audio recordings to help your family learn and deepen our understanding of the Catholic Church and how much Christ loves us! Parish Mission: "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." — Matthew 28:19-20

Parish Vision: Out of love for God and neighbor, we achieve our mission by respecting all life from conception until natural death, professing the Catholic faith as received from the Apostles, sharing our gifts for the benefit of all people, focusing on the family as the center of discipleship, and celebrating the sacraments for the greater glory of God.

CATHOLIC Q & A: CHURCH COLLECTIONS

Question: Where does the money go that is collected each week at Church?

Answer: This is a good question! Every parish has financial obligations, including the basic operation of the buildings, salaries, maintenance, and improvements. In addition, there are schools to support, programs to run, charities to be funded, and operational expenses like hosts and wine for Mass, music books, vestments, and so on. In some cases, cemeteries and other buildings need attention. Finally, there is the diocesan assessment that each parish pays to help run the diocese and the support services provided to each parish.

Most parishes manage to get by with the collection, a few fundraisers and endowments. But contrary to popular opinion, cash flow is also a problem, and many parishes operate in the red. The Finance Committee is responsible for assisting the pastor in fiscal management, and good stewardship is the basis for successful programs.
